How do we collect your data?

You directly provide GMT with most of the data we collect. We collect data and process data when you:

- Register online or use our online services.
- Voluntarily complete a questionnaire, customer survey or provide feedback on any of our services or via email.

GMT may also receive your data indirectly from the following sources:

- Third-party agencies.
- Marketing agencies.
- Defendants.

How will we use your data?

GMT collects your data to:

- Process and manage your claim.
- Email and SMS communications to collect additional claim information.
- Email and SMS communications to provide case updates.

GMT may share restricted elements of your data, as legally and operationally required, with our partner companies, defendants and relevant courts.

When GMT processes your registration, it may send your data to, and also use the resulting information from, credit reference agencies and data registries to prevent fraud.

How do we store your data?

GMT securely stores your data at our secure global data centers. Where and as appropriate we have appointed representatives in different jurisdictions.

GMT will keep your personal and claim data for a minimum of 6 years. Once this time period has expired, we will delete your data.

Marketing

You cannot opt out of receiving case communications by email and/or SMS messages which are sent by GMT to enable the lawyers acting in the case to represent you in the case and manage your claim because electronic communication is crucial to the management of the case.

GMT will send you information about the claims you have expressed an interest in joining.

If you have agreed to receive marketing, you may always opt out at a later date.

You have the right at any time to stop GMT from contacting you for marketing purposes or giving your data to other members of the GMT Group.

If you no longer wish to be contacted for marketing purposes you can unsubscribe via the unsubscribe hyperlink located in the footer of the email.

What are your data protection rights?
